Admission procedure and payment rules

Day-school admission

Before admission can be considered, parents are requested to fill in an admission form accompanied by a detailed report on the child's previous years' academic performance. By signing the admission form, the parents accept to pay the enrolment fee (see "Annual Fees" documents).

Admission is decided by the school management, based on the above-mentioned academic record, a preliminary meeting and the advice of the selection committee. In certain cases, an academic orientation test or an entrance examination are requested.

The enrolment fee (see "Annual Fees" documents) is due for each applicant upon reception of the invoice. The registration fee remain due should the enrolment be cancelled, whatever the reason may be.

For a day-school admission, the student must be living with his/her parents and has his/her home in the region of Lausanne or its surroundings. This rule also applies to students having reached the age of 18.

Boarding school admission

In addition to above-mentioned day-school formalities, the admission of any boarder is fixed as from class 6 of the middle school.

The following original documents are required:

- A passport (for non-Swiss nationals) or an identity card (for Swiss nationals)
- An entry visa, according to the requirements of the Swiss Embassy in the country of your domicile (this can take up to two months); the school declines all responsibility in case of the late arrival of a boarder due to a problem concerning a visa or other essential document.
- A birth certificate/identity card
- A proof of residence (for the 5 days boarding students)
- A vaccination booklet
- One photograph

Students are asked to bring practical, resistant clothing. The school advises you to avoid brand-name clothes and accessories. The school declines any responsibility in case of theft (clothes, money, jewels, computers, mobile phones, etc.). In the case of fire, the student's personal belongings are insured to a maximum of CHF 15'000.-.

No uniform is required by our school. With the parents' approval, the school may assist the students in completing their wardrobe and sports equipment. Personal purchases are subject to parental consent. For pocket money please refer to "Annual fees – Boarding school".

If the medical state of the student requires particular attention, a certificate and medical follow-up are requested by the school (see application form).

The health insurance of the school is compulsory for every boarder, except for those whose parents are Swiss residents. The school, in loco parentis, has the necessary parental authorisation to undertake any measures required to ensure medical treatment of the student. The insurance cover of the school ends upon the departure of the student.

The boarder can only become a day student on the sole condition that he/she is living with his/her parents and has his home in the region of Lausanne and its surroundings. This rule is also applicable to the students having already reached the age of 18.

Both the parents and the students are required to sign the school and boarding school rules after having read them.

Cancellation and departure

■ Cancellation of enrolment or re-enrolment before the start of the school year

Accident insurance

Cover

The insurance covers any accidents in school, during, before and after class periods, both within the school and its grounds. It includes accidents occurring during any excursions, trips, holidays, visits, walks and school camps which last for seven days or less and are organised by the school and supervised by the school staff.

Within this scope, accidents occurring during school activities, excursions, ski lessons and camps are also included.

All benefits mentioned here below are valid for boarders and day students of the School in addition to the benefits of their private health and accident insurance. Therefore, all accidents must initially be reported to the student's private health or accident insurance and then to the School's insurance company, which will intervene in addition.

Benefits

In the case of loss of life or disability the insurance cover is respectively of CHF 10'000.- and 80'000.-. Moreover, the insurance will cover, for 5 years as of the day of the accident, the following unlimited expenses:

- The necessary treatment undertaken by a qualified doctor or dentist; this includes hospital and treatment expenses, any stay and board as a result of required medical care approved by the insurance company in a Swiss establishment. If, at the time of the accident, there is no, or no longer any insurance with a health (LAMal) or accident (LAA) insurer, the insurance company shall bear the cost of all the benefits that would be due under the general conditions. However, for persons who are not domiciled in Switzerland, cover is limited to a maximum of CHF 50,000 per case and for a period of a maximum of 5 years;
- Any expense related to required qualified medical staff from a public or private institution as well as the rental of any necessary aids, while the medical treatment is being carried out;
- For the first purchase of prosthesis, glasses, acoustic or orthopaedic equipment, as well as the necessary expense for repairing or replacing them (purchase value) if damaged or destroyed in an accident which requires medical treatment;
- The required transportation cost of the insured due to an accident, if related to medical treatment. However, the cost of transportation by air is only covered if unavoidable for technical or medical reasons and will be to the nearest hospital that is able to undertake the treatment required for the patient;
- The costs of cleaning, repairing or replacing (purchase cost when new) of clothes of the insured damaged in an accident that gives right to an indemnity.

For all other matters, the insurance policies and their conditions apply.

We, the undersigned, parents or legally responsible for the above-named student, hereby fully accept the general conditions and any updates. We undertake to maintain this contractual agreement with the school even when our child legally reaches his/her majority and until his/her departure from the school.
